

More Than a Gift. A Feeling.

The Busybee Way

We created Busybee out of passion to rescue businesses from that all too familiar, last-minute scramble of gift planning. We believe that a gift should be a true reflection of your professional excellence, rather than a rushed afterthought. By moving away from generic, off-the-shelf hampers, we craft bespoke solutions that mirror your unique brand values and prestigious reputation.

Meet our Chief Curator – Bhairavi Bagia

Bhairavi Bagia acts as your dedicated brand partner rather than just another supplier. With a keen eye for premium finishes and elegant presentation, she empowers decision makers to deliver high-impact gifts that truly resonate with the recipient. Her mission is simple: to take the chaos of chasing vendors off your desk entirely, ensuring every detail is handled with absolute care.

Busybee Gift Concierge

Thoughtful gifting. Effortlessly managed.

Remembering birthdays, anniversaries, onboarding moments, and client milestones is time consuming. Making each gift feel personal is even harder. Busybee's Gift Concierge exists to solve this.

Our concierge service manages your gifting end to end, replacing generic gestures with thoughtfully curated gifts that feel intentional, refined, and memorable. Every detail is handled with care so your gifting consistently reflects appreciation, professionalism, and emotional intelligence.

You share the list.

You set the budget.

We take care of the rest.

How It Works

- ◆ Share names, dates, occasions, and preferences
- ◆ Select a curated gifting edit aligned with your brand and budget
- ◆ We curate, personalise, package, and deliver
- ◆ Every important moment is remembered throughout the year
